Rich or poor or proud and handsome,
Even you can read this Chanson,
By no law of luck or chances,
Every tooth you save enhances,
All your smiles and conversation,
Renders joy to all relations,
Don't despair when teeth are aching,
Save them, all their shapes remaking,
Life's prolonged and health extended,
Every time a tooth is mended,
You will find your joy remedied,
Dentist I "my crown" reveals it,
Every art by art conceals it,
Nature gave all in good season,
Teeth to eat with, minds to reason,
Is it her fault, yours or mine,
Shall their loss be mine or thine,
Thou shalt know in all good time.

Band of Gypsies in the Borough.

A gypsy caravan added a picturesque touch to the street scene Thursday afternoon. The women of the party were a gaudily appareled lot and though they were a little shy of the latest millinery modes they succeeded in holding the attention of about every one in the business section during the time they were in town, which was short—and long enough, too.

The band is traveling with a number of gypsies. They had enough small children along to attract a kindergarten, and they were not afflicted with stage fright, either. The band is camping in places where the authorities will permit them the privilege and are willing to take the chance.

TWO MORE TRAMPS

Arrested on Thursday—Added to 96 Prisoners at Brooklyn Jail.

When it comes to bagging game, President Roosevelt and the members of his African expedition haven't got much on the constables in the north end of the town of Killingly, and one of the specimens they are bringing down to (Danielson) are adding variety to the collection at Brooklyn jail.

Four more prisoners were brought in by Constables Louis Barstow and Eugene Glibney Thursday morning, making an even dozen from the "hunting grounds" in one raid. Ten of them went to jail in the afternoon after being tried before Deputy Judge Tucker in the town court and receiving sentences of thirty days each. They deserved more and would have received it, too, had not the already overcrowded condition of the jail prohibited giving them longer terms.

There are 96 cells in the jail and every one contained a prisoner Thursday morning. The arrivals from Danielson during the afternoon taxed the capacity of the jail to its limit. This condition of affairs is not in any way pleasing to the authorities. Not one-half of the prisoners can be worked to advantage. Most of them set in a vacation period in which to brace up and go out and create more trouble.

The tramp nuisance has become so disagreeable, however, that the towns are going to be made to give this town a wide berth.

Killingly has a reputation now of being anything but a tramps' paradise among the lights of the road. What they are likely to get here in the future will strengthen their opinion.

Half Holiday at Dayville.

For the first time this season the business men of Dayville who make a practice of closing Thursday afternoons during June, July and August enjoyed a half holiday.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Richmond have been guests of relatives at Clinton, Mass.

Must Keep Himself.

The French court has decided that Mrs. Gould-Castellani de Sagan is to keep the children. That, however, is not the real point behind the suit, which really was to find out who keeps the father.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Big, Painful Swellings Broke and Did Not Heal—Suffered 3 Years.

TORTURES YIELD TO CUTICURA

"Little black swellings were scattered over my face and neck and they would leave little black scars that would itch so I couldn't keep from scratching them. Larger swellings would appear and my clothes would stick to the sores. I went to a doctor, but the trouble only got worse. By this time it was all over my arms and the upper part of my body in swellings as large as a dollar. It was so painful that I could not bear to lie on my back. The second doctor stopped the swellings, but when they broke the places would not heal. I bought a set of the Cuticura Remedies and in less than a week some of the places were nearly well. I continued until I had used three sets, and now I am sound and well. The disease lasted three years. O. L. Wilson, Puryear, Tenn., Feb. 8, 1908."

STATE C. T. A. U.

Dates of Convention Changed—To Begin on Labor Day.

At the request of the state secretary of the C. T. A. U., the dates for the state convention for Saturday in Putnam have been changed to September 5, 6 and 7. This arrangement will include Labor day and will undoubtedly result in increasing the attendance, as many desire to attend who could not come here on any other day except the holiday.

Removing Unused Rails.

Down at Dayville a section of the street railway running from Kelley's corner to the steam road trunk is being removed. The section was put in when the road was built, but has not been used since the loop and trolley bridge over the steam road was built. The track is being taken out in order that the rails may be sent elsewhere to be used in construction work.

Entertainment for Mibernians.

Putnam division, No. 1, A. O. H., has arranged for a literary entertainment for the members next Sunday afternoon after the regular monthly business meeting.

Recent Manager Benoit's Protest.

The management of the Putnam team does not take kindly to the protest Manager Benoit of the Norwich-Taftville team has filed with the league secretary against the playing of Pitcher Rivard with the local team. It looks like merry times if Manager Benoit urges his protest to be considered by a league meeting. The feeling in Putnam seems to be that Rivard has as much right to play with Putnam as several other players in the league have to play on the teams of which they are members.
